Dr. S. W. Lee, of Birchwood, called to see us Saturday. The doctor seems to enjoy reasonable health, and has a prosperous appearance.

1,000 pounds of Butter wanted at Surguine & Co's.

Mr. Tom Gault made his maiden speech in court a few days ago in the case of the State vs Henry Nipper. All that we hear speak of it, compliment his effort.

We noticed along the line of railroad between this place and Nashville last week, that the wheat is greatly damaged by rust. In fact more so than in this section.

The Nashville Centennial is a grand display of fine goods, machinery &c., with a large amount of old relics. It furnishes a good excuse for those desiring to make a cheap trip to the city of rocks.

A YOUNG man named William Anderson, near Knoxville, shot and killed his little brother last week, mistaking him for a sheep-killing dog. The sad affair has run the young man nearly distracted.

Amour fifteen of our best citizens have been arrested for gambling. They bought too much "soap" from a peddler about three months ago. Don't say "soap" to any of them if you haven't time to fight.

Ladies Your Attention. The finest assortment of Perfumes and Toilet articles ever brought to Cleveland, have just arrived at Traynor's Drugstore. Also a fine assortment of Cosmetics. Call and examine.

WHILE in Chattanooga last week we looked through the stock of Gents' Furnishing goods of D. J. Whiteside & Co. They have a full stock of goods in that line, and can supply any demand. Their stock of Hats especially is fine, as well as their underwear. Give them a call when in that city.

Millet Seed and Clay Peas for sale by Surguine & Co.

THERE are no thieves in Cleveland now. Tuesday night, Kelley & Cooper accidentally left a side of bacon hanging all night in front of their store, and it was there next morning. Sheriff Hays says he saw it late in the night but was afraid to move it for fear Frank was sitting up stairs with a shot gun waiting for a victim.

MR. THOS. C. MAROON, of the 4th district of this county, died Sunday morning at the age of about 40 years. Mr. Maroon has been suffering some time with consumption. He leaves many kindred and friends in this county to mourn his untimely end. The Lodge of Knights of Honor of this place attended the funeral on Monday, and conducted the ceremonies.

"Ground Hog"

EDITOR HERALD: The correspondent under the above euphonious "non deplume" is rather late in the season making his appearance; also a little premature in some of his announcements of news. The school at Georgetown Academy closes May 28th. The exercises, I understand, will consist chiefly of class exercises.

If "Ground Hog" could have heard the comments of some of our young men on his article, he would certainly have "gone in his hole" again, and have remained there, solens solens. The truth of the business is, our modest young men are becoming more conspicuous through the papers than they like. They are of the opinion that if a pauper and a bear take "a hug," the newspaper man need not say anything about it. Or, if they do a little courting on the sly, there is no need of a correspondent cutting a great flourish over it. The young men are of the opinion that the community is a little too much inclined to gossip. If a young man goes a fish-ing or a hunt-ing and stays a day or two, the town has to discuss the matter for a week, and generally come to the conclusion that he is too young to be doing so. Or, if a certain young man sports an infantile mustache, they are ready to exclaim, "O come now, that looks too Downie."

Or if another certain young man attends a neighboring Sunday School, they are ready to say, "he looks wonderful wise, if he isn't a Solomon." Now all this has to be stopped, or else the young men will read you a chapter on the old man. So take warning "Ground Hog" and others. Wheat rusting some, but farmers are hopeful. Your friends are glad to know of your appointment to Chicago. More anon. Nix, Georgetown, Tenn.

The editor of the Knoxville Tribune in his Sunday's paper writes up his ancestry—the Turkey Buzzard.

Ministers' and Deacons' Meeting. The Ministers and Deacons meeting of the Ocoee Association will be held at Ooltewah, James county, Tenn., Friday before the 8th Sunday in May 1880. The following is the programme of the exercises:

Friday, 10 a. m. Address by Rev. J. M. Robinson. Subject: "Why, when and where should each member of the church labor for the salvation of souls." 11 a. m. Deacon G. R. Hatcher. "Where rests the responsibility in giving the gospel to the destitute, on the ministry, or the churches." 1 p. m. Rev. J. J. Kennedy. "Should discipline be enforced for non attendance on the church; or a refusal to observe the Lord's Supper?" 2 p. m. Rev. S. J. Blair. "The duties of one member to another, and of all to the pastor." 3 p. m. Hon. Lewis Shepherd. "Where rests the authority to baptize, with the minister or the church?" 4 p. m. Rev. J. M. Phillips. "A model church at work."

Saturday, 9 a. m. Rev. Levi Dunn. "How can all the forces and resources of the church be developed and used?" 10 a. m. Rev. J. M. Robinson. "Revivals, their errors and abuses." 11 a. m. Rev. J. B. Hunt. "What are the most formidable difficulties in the way of the spread of the gospel at the present time, and how can they be overcome?" 1 p. m. Rev. J. S. Thomas. "Relation of baptism and communion." 2 p. m. Rev. S. J. Blair. "Deacons, their gratifications and duties." 3 p. m. Question box.

Each address followed by free discussion of the topic by members of the Institute. The topics may be by addressees or essays. Only one hour allowed to each topic, unless granted by the convention. If any who have subjects assigned them can not fill them, they will please inform J. J. Kennedy, of Cleveland.

Ooltewah is a pleasant little village on the railroad between Chattanooga and Cleveland, fifteen miles from either place. The inhabitants give a cordial invitation to all, and desire a full attendance. J. M. PHILLIPS, Committee.

Card of Thanks. I wish to express my gratitude to the gentlemen of Cleveland for the kind interest they have taken in my little mishap at the spelling bee. Accept my warmest thanks for the valuable present. Though I was perfectly satisfied with the decision of the judges, I appreciate it even more than if I had won in the contest. DELIA CARSON.

Hon. W. W. Goodpasture writes us that all his recommendations for census enumerators have been made to Supt. Walker, at Washington, and that the appointments will be made in a few days.

THE Atlanta Constitution is an enterprising paper. It takes old dispatches and dates them up, and its readers don't seem to know the difference.

MOTHER STEWART the great temperance advocate, and one of the Ohio Crusaders is expected to be in this city on the 22nd and hold Christian Temperance meetings for several days. It is expected that she will preach in the M. E. Church on Sunday the 23rd.

Proceedings of the Sunday School Convention.

Held with the Candor creek Baptist Church Bradley county, Tenn., on Friday, April 30. The regular appointee to preach the introductory sermon not being present, it was preached by Elder S. J. Blair. Then adjourned until 3 o'clock p. m. The convention met pursuant to adjournment. First, music by the Eureka Brass Band, and prayer by Elder A. J. Duncan.

Second. The convention organized by electing John McPherson Moderator, and John Boone Secretary. Then proceeded to the business of the convention. Calls for reports of Sunday Schools, and the following schools reported to-wit: Little Hopeville reported, teachers 6, members 66, copies of the Bible Lessons taken 40, Childrens quarterly picture lessons 25; M. Tigue, Superintendent, J. Cochran, Sec'y; delegates, J. L. Kirby and J. G. Lea. Gum Spring reported J. T. Sortin, Sup't; students 39; delegate, James Romine. Eureka reported school organized April 1877; officers for 1880, A. J. Duncan, Sup't; M. L. Ross, Ass't; N. G. Ross, Sec'y; John McPherson, Treas; teachers 7, students 70. Average attendance 42, music books 18, delegates to the convention, J. W. Beard, J. W. Johnston. There were some remarks made on the importance of Sunday Schools by Elder S. J. Blair, R. Parks, A. J. Duncan, and J. L. Kirby; after which the band played "Sweet Home," then adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Benediction by Elder R. Parks. Saturday, May 1st, the convention met pursuant to adjournment. First, music by the band; 2nd, prayer by Elder Phillip Chambers; 3rd, singing by the choir; 4th, reading the minutes of the first days proceedings; 5th, music by the band; then the following propositions were submitted for discussion: 1st. "What is the true object of Sunday Schools?" speeches were made by A. J. Duncan, B. Brown, R. Parks, S. J. Blair, and S. J. Blair. The arguments were very interesting, which showed it should be the work of the churches. 3rd. "Should the time devoted to Sunday School teaching conflict with the hours of public preaching?" speakers, S. J. Blair, R. Parks, and A. J. Duncan. The argument showed that it should not. 4th. "Is there not a probability that the stress laid upon the importance of Sabbath School teaching may lead the mind of the young into the belief of self righteousness or meritorious works?" Able speeches were made on the last proposition by P. Chambers, S. J. Blair, R. Parks and A. J. Duncan; the argument showing that there might be danger. The following resolution was offered by Elder S. J. Blair: Resolved, That we instruct the Secretary to send a copy of the proceedings of this convention to the Cleveland Herald and Cleveland Banner and the Baptist Reflector, for publication and request the editors to publish the same, after which the band played some beautiful pieces of music, then dismissed. JOHN McPHERSON, Moderator, JOHN BOONE, Secretary.
